

Car Accident Prevention Bath

This bath spell protects against car accidents, especially if one is afraid of one due to suspicion of a curse or hex cast using iron. Perform this spell the night before your trip.

1. Create an infusion of Feverfew by pouring boiling water over the herb
2. Run a bath and add the infusion
3. Soak for at least 10 minutes, being sure to submerge completely at least once during your bath
4. For additional protection, bring a sachet of Feverfew in the car with you
