

Egg Protection Spell

It is said that any person living in a house containing this kind of stuffed egg cannot be the target of any evil spellwork

- 1. Thoroughly wash and dry an egg*
- 2. Place masking tape on the egg's top and bottom*
- 3. Using a push pin, carefully poke holes through the tape at both ends of the shell*
- 3. Rotate the push pin in one of the holes to make it bigger*
- 4. Straighten out a paper clip and insert it into the egg in order to break up the yolk. Do this on each end of the egg*
- 5. Hold the egg over a bowl and blow into the smaller opening to force the egg white and yolk out of the larger end*
- 6. Hold the egg under running water with one of the holes facing up and allow the water to flush it out*
- 7. Place on a towel and allow the shell to dry overnight*
- 8. When you are sure that the hollowed out shell is completely dry, stuff it full with Cinquefoil*
- 9. Using red wax, seal the egg*
